

GENERAL PARTNER
CHARITY ART EXHIBITION
STRELITZIA 7.3. – 17.3.2019

REASON

The name of the exhibition symbolizes a beautiful exotic flower with the Latin name STRELITZIA.

On 8.3. International Women's Day is celebrated worldwide with many women receiving flowers.

STRELITZIA was a charity art sales exhibition, whose proceeds helped women in trouble.

All proceeds were donated to ACORUS.

The background of the poster features a vibrant, multi-colored Strelitzia flower (bird of paradise) with green leaves, set against a dark blue background. The flower's petals are rendered in shades of orange, red, yellow, and blue, with a sparkling, iridescent effect.
